(e.g. birth certificate, passport, statutory declaration)

2. a. Your original academic certificate showing the class of award obtained (where applicable)

b. OR a photocopy of your original academic certificate that has been verified by the British Council (If the British Council is unable or unwilling to provide this service you are required to submit the evidence specified in either 2a or 2c.)

c. OR an original statement/transcript of your academic studies that has been certified by the institution at which your qualification was obtained

3 Your original TOEFL/IELTS or GCSE/GCE O Level English language certificate (or similar)

OR a photocopy of your original certificate that has been verified by the British Council
(If the British Council is unable or unwilling to provide this service you are required to submit the original certificate.)

Note: all original documents submitted by you will be returned by registered mail after your application has been processed. However, the University will keep all photocopies unless you request otherwise.

Please note that an original official translation into English must be provided for any evidence required that is not already in English. This translation will be retained by the University.

In addition to the above, please indicate whether you have asked two referees to send confidential letters of reference to the University directly (see question 17)

How to apply and register

Postgraduate qualifications in Organizational Psychology and Human Resource Management

1 Complete the application form and, together with all the documentation listed on page 6 of the form, submit it by post as soon as possible but to be received no later than 1 October to:

The Postgraduate Admissions Office
The External Programme
University of London
Ground floor
Stewart House
32 Russell Square
London WC1B 5DN
United Kingdom
Tel: +44 (0)20 7862 8376
Email: postgraduate_admissions@london.ac.uk

Notes:

- If you cannot send all the required documentation with your application form, please enclose a letter with the form giving the reasons.
- Please note that faxed applications are not accepted.
- At its discretion, the University may sometimes consider applications received after 1 October. All such enquiries should be made direct to the Postgraduate Admissions Office at the address given above.

2 We will acknowledge receipt of your application form and send you a student number to use as a reference whenever you contact the University. Please note that we allocate a student number to everyone who applies – it does not mean that you have been accepted for the programme. If you have not received an acknowledgement within three weeks of sending in your form, please contact the Postgraduate Admissions Office with details of your full name, the programme for which you have applied, and the date you posted your form.

3 Your application will be considered only when we have received all your documentary evidence and both references. After due consideration you will be told if your application has been successful or not. Please note that if there is a delay in sending in any of the documentation or references we will have to wait to receive them before we can begin considering your application. This is because we need as much information about you as possible before we can reach a decision.

4 If your application has been successful, we will send you:

- an offer of registration
- a fee slip
- a registration form
- a copy of the Regulations.

5 To register, complete the registration form and fee slip and return these, along with the appropriate fee, by 1 January, to:

The Postgraduate Registry
The External Programme
University of London
Ground floor
Stewart House
32 Russell Square
London WC1B 5DN
United Kingdom
Tel: +44 (0)20 7862 8377
Fax: +44 (0)20 7862 8238
Email: jonathan.seddon@london.ac.uk

6 Study will commence in February. We will send you study materials and details of how to log on to the Virtual Learning Environment.

Note:

- Study materials are sent to students once a year (usually by courier) in January. Materials are not normally dispatched at any other time.

Questions about your application

If you have any questions about your application after you have applied to us, please contact the Postgraduate Admissions Office at the address given under section 1.

Please note: you can now apply for this programme online.

Academic requirements

A good honours degree or equivalent, in any subject, from an institution acceptable to the University of London.

English language

For all applicants an advanced level of English is required. Applicants may be required to pass, or to have passed within the last five years, at the appropriate level, a test of proficiency in English acceptable to the University of London (e.g. TOEFL, IELTS, GCSE/GCE 'O' Level in English).

Minimum computer specification

You will need to have an IBM-compatible computer with access to the Internet* and meet the following minimum computer specification.

Processor: Pentium 266

Operating System: Windows 98

RAM Memory: 64Mb

Screen resolution: 800 x 600 colour

CD-ROM drive

Modem speed: 56kbps

Free space on hard disk: 100Mb

Browser: Internet Explorer version 5.5

If you already own a PC, check that it meets the minimum specifications above. On older machines it may be possible to increase the memory (RAM) and size of the hard disk to meet these requirements. If you are buying a new PC it will almost certainly meet these specifications. Although the computer software is not compatible with Macintosh computers, you can buy PC emulation software to enable you to run PC applications on a Mac.

*Please ensure that the computer you intend to use when accessing the VLE can accept cookies (students using a corporate or other network should check with their network administrator). Students who wish to use the VLE's offline capability must be able to install software on their computer.

Financial assistance

No financial assistance is available from the University. Some employers in both the public and the private sector may be willing to consider offering financial assistance to their employees.

Students who are resident in the UK may be able to apply for a Career Development Loan. Information can be obtained from the CDL Information Line on 0800 585 505 or from their website www.lifelonglearning.dfes.gov.uk/cdl

Disabled students who are resident in the UK may also be able to apply for a Disabled Student Allowance (DSA). For a copy of the information leaflet, which answers most of the questions commonly asked about DSAs, please contact either your LEA or the DfES Information Line on 0800 731 9133 or on textphone 0800 210 280. The information is also available on audio tape or in braille. The guide is available on the DfES website:

www.dfes.gov.uk/studentssupport

Students who are members of the UK Armed Forces should note that the University of London has been approved by the Ministry of Defence in support of the Enhanced Learning Credits (ELC) Scheme (ELC Provider Reference Number 1284). The Scheme provides financial support to eligible Service personnel who wish to enhance their educational or vocational achievements. The ELC administration Service website can be found at:

www.enhancedlearningcredits.co.uk

Fees

The fees given below refer to the 2008 calendar year only and are subject to annual review.

Registration fee	£1,500
Fee per module	£755
Dissertation	£1,500
Fee per module (Short course)	£905
TOTAL
Postgraduate Diploma	£6,030
MSc	£9,050

You can choose to pay the fees in one of two ways:

EITHER

Pay the total amount upfront when you register

OR

Pay as you go (a one-off registration fee plus a fee for each module).

SHORT COURSE STUDENTS

Pay a composite fee of £905 per module in 2008.

Note: the University reserves the right to make additional charges for issuing revised or replacement study materials. In addition to the University's fees given above, if you are sitting examinations outside London you will have to pay a fee to your local examination centre to cover their costs.

Information for students with a disability or special needs

The University has a panel that considers applications for special examination arrangements. The aim of the panel is to ensure that a student with a disability is not advantaged or disadvantaged when compared with other students. If you have a disability/special need and may need special examination arrangements (such as extra time or special aids), or as a result of your condition/circumstances, you may wish to apply for your study materials to be provided in an alternative format (e.g. large print), you should complete the relevant section of the application form. You should also write to the Special Needs Coordinator at the following address enclosing medical or other supporting evidence:

Special Needs Coordinator
The External System
University of London
Ground floor, Stewart House
32 Russell Square
London WC1B 5DN
United Kingdom
Fax: +44 (0)20 7862 8349
Email: specialneeds@london.ac.uk

You can request a copy of the University of London's full disability statement. Please refer to the Admissions contact details on page 8, or download it from our website: www.londonexternal.ac.uk/dissn
